TRULIANT FEDERAL CREDIT UNION'S DIRECTOR OF SECURITY AMONG THE TOP 25 IN THE INDUSTRY

Winston-Salem, N.C. (December 17, 2008) – Truliant Federal Credit Union's Director of Security has been recognized by Security Magazine as one of the "Top 25 Most Influential People in the Security Industry." More than 1,000 security professionals were considered when the list was being compiled.

"I am very excited to have been recognized on this list," said Darrell Wilson, director of security for Truliant Federal Credit Union. "This is also a great honor for Truliant. We are the only financial institution recognized on the list and the other individuals work for multi-billion dollar organizations. This is a true testament to our hard work ethic."

Wilson worked for the Winston-Salem Police Department for more than 10 years and has been with Truliant for nearly 10 years. He is now charged with managing two departments and 25 locations in four states.

From the Security Magazine article,

"My eagerness for knowledge in the field of security was secondary to the attitude that I wanted to 'know all and be the best'", said Wilson. "My strength is in knowing that anything can be done if you just ask the right people and continue to seek the information. I am a firm believer that if you ask the right people, ask enough questions, and never take no for an answer you will excel in your role as a security employee."
