High Point, NC -- Police are looking for a man accused of robbing a bank Wednesday morning.

High Point Police were called to Truliant Federal Credit Union around 9:15 am in reference to a bank robbery.

Witnesses told police a man wearing a black face masked entered the business with a semi-automatic handgun and demanded money.

The suspect is thought to have left in an older model Chevrolet Oldsmobile with tinted windows and large chrome rims. Witnesses say the paint of the car changes colors in the light.

No one was injured during the robbery.

If anyone recognizes the below suspect or knows of a vehicle matching the description, please call High Point Crimestoppers at 889-4000.
