David Spencer Joins Financial Advisors at Truliances
04-09-2009

Winston-Salem, N.C. – The Financial Advisors at Truliances, a subsidiary of Truliant Federal Credit Union is proud to announce that David Spencer has joined the company as their newest financial advisor. Spencer will work out of Truliant’s Member Financial Center located on Tyvola Road in Charlotte, N.C., where he will specialize in providing advice to credit union members about 401(k), pensions and other types of retirement plans.

“I am very pleased to be joining a team of professionals with a clear focus on serving our member-owners,” said Spencer. “No matter what stage of life our members are in, I am here to help them and look out for their best interest.”

Prior to joining Truliant, Spencer served as a Financial Advisor for AXA Equitable Financial, in Charlotte, N.C., where he actively held series 7 and series 66 licenses along with life, health and long term care licensing. Prior to joining AXA Equitable Financial, Spencer had a diversified background including being the Regional Sales Manager with Linpac / Filmco Incorporated and as a District Business Manager for the Letica Corporation.

David is a graduate of Appalachian State University with a B.S. in Communication and Advertising.
