Greetings from the president

Allie Marsh received a card with birthday greetings and the signatures of President Bush and first lady Laura Bush to celebrate her 98th birthday on Jan. 20. Marsh received the card through the efforts of her great-grandson Drew Winfield, 11, with whom she is pictured. Drew, a student at Wesleyan Christian Academy, wrote a letter to Bush explaining why his "Mama Allie" deserved a special greeting this year. Both are members of Turner's Chapel AME Church.

RECOGNITION

Nancy Abel, an adapted physical education teacher of exceptional children in Guilford County, was named Outstanding Teacher of the Month for April by NewBridge Bank.

Each week, Abel travels to 15 schools in the High Point area, working with special needs children grades K through 12. She tries to integrate her students into regular physical-education classes by modifying or adapting games or activities. She received a $1,000 cash award.

Jane Freeman of Fair Grove Elementary School in Thomasville on April 22 received the Nancy Sink Frazier Distinguished Teacher in Special Education Award for 2008 from Davidson County Civitan Club.

Freeman has taught exceptional children for 26 years, beginning in 1981 at Fair Grove Elementary School. After four years, she moved to an administrative position with Davidson County Schools, and two years later she returned to the classroom. She now teaches exceptional children in kindergarten through second grade.

She has invited groups to her home, visited with students in their homes, planned special events, visited hospitalized students and their family. She works on school fundraisers, participates in the March of Dimes walk and serves weekly on a school referral team.

Freeman earned a degree in 1981 from Appalachian State University in special education and a master's degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

She lives in Thomasville with her husband, Billy, and daughters Katie and Anna.

BULLETIN BOARD

Macedonia center to host mini-grant information session

HIGH POINT - A mini-grant information session by Truliant Federal Credit Union will be held 4-5 p.m. May 6 at Macedonia Family Resource Center, 401 Lake Ave. It is to launch the Truliant Community Mini-Grant Program, and it is designed to allow organizations to learn about Truliant's mini-grants and writing grant applications. Mini-grants are for community and faith-based nonprofit agencies with an impact on one or more of the following areas: health or human services programs, youth, affordable housing, financial literacy or economic development. Applications also will be available at Truliant Member Financial Center, 4006 Mendenhall Oaks Parkway, after May 15. The grant deadline is July 15. To register for the mini-grant session, send e-mail to Marjorie Rorie, director of community services, marjorie.rorie@truliantfcu.org, telephone (336) 293-2054.

BIBLE QUIZ

Yesterday's Bible question: Complete: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Answer to yesterday's question: life, life (John 3:36)

Today's Bible question: Did Jesus say He knew when His second coming would be?
