Clyde Padgett Wins Mark of Excellence Award (6/13/2008)

Clyde Padgett, who serves on the board of directors at Truliant Federal Credit Union, won the prestigious Mark of Excellence Award at the 73rd annual meeting of the North Carolina Credit Union League (NCCUL). Padgett received the award, one of the highest honors bestowed to credit union people in North Carolina, in a special awards ceremony held Monday evening, June 9th.

The Mark of Excellence Award recognizes sustained leadership among NC credit union people. Eligibility is limited to past winners of the Ronald J. Hutchins Credit Union Volunteer Person of the Year Award who have at least 25 years of service in the credit union industry. A committee made up of statewide credit union leaders selected

Padgett to receive the award.

Padgett has been a member of the credit union for 52 years, and has served on the board of directors since 1984. He served as Truliant's chairman from 1986 until 2003, presiding over dramatic growth and developing several innovative plans and processes for the credit union.

Padgett has been very active in the credit union movement on the state and national level. He has served as a director of the Carolinas Credit Union Foundation, as well as participated in many committees for the League and the Credit Union National Association.

He is also active in the Winston-Salem community, serving in a variety of roles for organizations such as the Chamber of Commerce, United Way and the Arts Council. Padgett is also a retired volunteer firefighter, and previously coached Little League Baseball.
