Truliant Federal Credit Union has launched a new program that offers a funding boost to nonprofits in the region.

The "Truliant Community Mini-Grant Program" provides grants to nonprofits can use to support operational costs.

Grantees have to be working in health or human services, youth, affordable housing, financial literacy or economic development to qualify. More than 110 agencies applied for the first round of grants, and 31 received awards of unspecified amounts.

More than half of those first awards went to organizations in the Triad, including the Guilford Education Alliance, The Shepherd's Center of Kernersville, the Burlington Development Corp. and the Randolph County Family Crisis Center.
