Truliant Federal Credit Union has opened a new office in Greensboro, according to an announcement.

The new office at 2914 South Elm-Eugene Street, near Home Depot, replaces a previous location on Centerview Drive, the Winston-Salem-based credit union said.

"A large portion of our member-owners live or work in Greensboro and this new location will provide added convenience to those individuals," said Truliant CEO Marc Schaefer. "Not only will this facility offer convenience to our members; it will allow us to share the benefits of credit union membership with the surrounding communities."
